

Train the Trainer

SESSIONS Fall 2010

Train the Trainer sessions are designed to provide the information, skills and tools you and your staff need to bring something really fun and exciting back to your students.

OFFERINGS FOR AFTER SCHOOL STAFF:

- ▶ YOU WANT ME TO TEACH DANCE?
- ▶ COLORFUL & CREATIVE PALM WOOD TRIBAL MASKS
- ▶ MUNCH CRUNCH, GROW YOUR LUNCH
- ▶ PROJECT GROW - ENJOY WELLNESS, RELAXATION, EATING & ART!
- ▶ MODELING MAYHEM ! ECOSYSTEM EXPLORATION
- ▶ THEATER

OFFERINGS FOR PARENTS:

- ▶ ART + MATH - BOREDOM = SMARTER STUDENT!
Using the arts to help your kids with math
- ▶ PUPPETRY: THE CASE OF THE RELUCTANT READER
Using the arts to help your kids learn to read

*made possible through support from
Prime Time Palm Beach County*

CREATE YOUR OWN ENHANCEMENTS!

Train the Trainer

SESSIONS

All sessions are held from 9:00 am—12:00 pm

Class A: You Want Me To Teach Dance?

Learn to bring dance instruction to your classroom or afterschool site! Regardless of your dance experience, you learn to incorporate movement to enhance curriculum with your students. You learn strategies and project ideas that reinforce literacy through dance.

Max participants: 20 persons

Thursday - June 10th
Artists: Sonja Kelly,
& Dee Mac

Class B: Colorful & Creative Palm Wood Tribal Masks

Learn to design, paint and embellish recycled items and palm frond bases, creating a one-of-a-kind tribal masks with your students. Hands-on instruction provides lessons you may take back to your classroom or after school site. We will use acrylic paints, so wear an old shirt! Dave and Steve walk you through the process step by step. This is a terrific project to use with your students!

Max participants: 20 persons

Thursday - June 24th
Artists: Steve Brouse
& David Tripp

REGISTER ONLINE: WWW.CCEFLORIDA.ORG

Class C:

Munch Crunch, Grow Your Lunch

You learn to create a container garden for your classroom or after school site. Hands-on instruction teaches you how to plant and maintain a variety of herbs. Instruction includes learning how to make foods with your students using edible plants from the garden.

Max participants: 20 persons

Thursday - July 8th

Artists: Anne Sheehy-Moritz
& Kaki Holt

Class D:

Project GROW - Enjoy Wellness, Relaxation, Eating & Art!

In our hectic, fast paced world there is an oasis called “Project Grow.” Join us for a morning and learn to bring lessons on healthy eating, mindful movement, relaxation techniques and positive thinking strategies to your classroom or after school site. You will learn to instruct new lessons with your students and site staff!

Max participants: 20 persons

Thursday - July 22nd

Artists: Trish Halverson
& Janet Lifshin

Class E:

Modeling Mayhem! Ecosystem Exploration

Learn to work hands-on with various types of non-toxic modeling clays, materials and organic found objects. You will learn to leverage and reinforce student knowledge through art—explore how to integrate creative modeling with Math, Geography, Science and Language Arts. Instruction allows you to create mini ecosystems by modeling a variety of landscapes, plants and animals. Please wear your play clothes!

Max participants: 20 persons

Thursday - August 5th

Artists: Tracy Rosoff-Peterson
& Gail Kosowski

REGISTER ONLINE:

WWW.CCEFLORIDA.ORG

Class F:
Theater

Gain training on teaching your students how to use expressive body movement to reinforce curriculum knowledge. You will learn how to conduct physical warm-ups with music to prepare your students for the lesson. Instruction provides you with specific mime 'illusions' that may be applied to your student curriculum. We will apply movement to the poetry of Carl Sandburg, Shel Silverstein, Emily Dickinson, Mary Oliver and Maya Angelou.

Max participants: 20 persons

Thursday - August 19th
Artists: Graciela Binaghi
& Kim Cozort

FOR PARENTS:
Art + Math - Boredom = Smarter Student!
Using the arts to help your kids with math -

Helping your child with math at home greatly develops their abilities -- especially when you add art into the equation. Watch your child's knowledge multiply as you learn creative, fun techniques that use art to teach mathematical skills--minus the boring drills and exercises. You will learn several simple and low-cost activities that help your child become a math whiz in just a fraction of time!

Max participants: 20 persons

Saturday - September 18th
Artists: Jeff Fessler
& Trish Halverson

FOR PARENTS:
Puppetry: The Case of the Reluctant Reader
Using the arts to help your kids learn to read -

Want to make your child a better reader? Solve this mystery by learning fun, creative ways to build their vocabulary and increase language skills. You will learn to reinforce learning through use of puppets, music and theater that engage the whole family in reading adventures!

Max participants: 20 persons

Saturday - September 25th
Artists: Jeff Fessler
& Ronni Gerstel

REGISTER ONLINE: WWW.CCEFLORIDA.ORG

Train the Trainer

SESSIONS

How do I get started?

- ▶ RSVP FOR ADMITTANCE.
- ▶ CAPACITY IS LIMITED TO 20 AT ALL WORKSHOPS - REGISTER EARLY!

Where do I RSVP?

- ▶ REGISTER ONLINE BY CLICKING TO THE RIGHT —
- ▶ A $10.00 RESERVATION FEE IS REQUIRED AT RESERVATION. IT IS REFUNDED AT THE END OF THE WORKSHOP.
- ▶ MAKE YOUR CHECK PAYABLE TO: 'CENTER FOR CREATIVE EDUCATION' AND MAIL TO:

CENTER FOR CREATIVE EDUCATION
ATTN: TRINA SLADE-BURKS
425 24TH STREET
WEST PALM BEACH, FL 33407

Where are the sessions held?

- ▶ 408 ARTSPACE
408 NORTHWOOD ROAD
WEST PALM BEACH, FL 33407
- ▶ ALL SESSIONS BEGIN AT 9:00 AM AND END AT 12:00 PM.

Questions?

PLEASE CONTACT TRINA SLADE-BURKS AT:

(561) 842-5724
OR
TRINAB@CCEFLORIDA.ORG

Made possible through support from
Prime Time Palm Beach County

CREATE YOUR OWN ENHANCEMENTS!

Train the Trainer

SESSIONS

All sessions are held from 9:00 am—12:00 pm

AREA MAP

408 ARTSPACE
408 NORTHWOOD ROAD
WEST PALM BEACH, FL 33407

