

After a 20-year career in advertising and marketing, Kaki Holt began writing fulltime on a freelance basis. Over the past decade, she has written for local newspapers, regional and national magazines, national television and AP International. She has also traveled throughout Europe, the Caribbean and India.

Kaki set up after-school garden clubs for the Palm Beach School District, devised the curriculum and trained the teachers and volunteers. She also originated the International Cuisine Instruction Module for Prime Time.

A true Renaissance woman, Kaki employs her boundless enthusiasm to teach the following subjects:

Painting

Mosaics

Container Herb Gardening

Schoolyard Wildlife Habitat

Eco-Club

International Cooking

Asia: The Indian Experience

Writing

Poetry

Photography
